Christmas

It's a perfect celebration usually it is a Christian celebration, which started when Jesus was born.

In the New Year people see it as a fresh start and may set new goals for the year ahead.

Christmas elves are Santa's helpers who live at the North Pole and are known for making toys in his workshop. They are often depicted as small humanoids with pointy ears and hats, dressed in green or red, and are said to be very good with their hands and fast at their jobs. Elves love sugary foods like cookies and candy canes and have their own secret language called "Elvish".

Santa Claus is the legendary, jolly, red-suited gift-giver for children at Christmas, evolving from the historical Saint Nicholas, a 4th-century bishop known for generosity, whose Dutch name Sinterklaas morphed into "Santa Claus" in America, combining with figures like England's Father Christmas. He lives at the North Pole with his wife, Mrs. Claus, elves, and reindeer,

Reindeer are unique deer known for both males and females growing antlers, having fur-lined noses, and eyes that change colour seasonally. Adapted for cold climates with thick, hollow-haired coats and wide hooves, they are excellent swimmers and migrate vast distances, surviving on plants and "reindeer moss" (lichen). They're social herd animals, with calves able to walk

Terrific Tool on Finlay Field

On Monday 24th

November, a group of Year 3 children were told a mysterious artefact had been found in the Finlay Forest School.

Immediately, the students raced up to the Finlay Forest School.

They dashed every where but it was not found immediately.

the tool in this photograph is believed to be a axe.

After a long time of searching, a pupil named Ahmed, made the discovery. Every Year 3 student gathered around the artefact.

The children were FULL of questions. One of them said "How old is it?" Another said "What is it?" Another said "Why is it here?" Until a teacher said "Everyone be quiet girls, line up here, boys, line up here". They lined up. First the girls went to look at the artefact, then the boys. After, Year 3 carried

it to the class room
A person asked "Can it go to newsround?"
Another asked "Can it go to the museum?" "We'll see" said the teacher.
